As part of its youth development initiative, the department offers an Internship Program designed to equip graduates with practical skills and workplace experience in the fields of arts, culture, heritage, sport, and administration.

Program Overview

The Limpopo Department of Sport, Arts & Culture Internship Program is aimed at providing young graduates with hands-on experience in the public sector while developing critical professional skills. Interns will be placed in different divisions within the department and will work on projects that align with their field of study and career aspirations.

Internships are available in the following fields:

- Sports Management & Development
- Arts & Cultural Development
- Heritage & Museum Studies
- Library & Archival Services
- Marketing & Communications
- Event Management & Public Relations
- Human Resources (HR) & Administration
- Finance & Supply Chain Management
- Information Technology (IT) & Digital Media
- Legal & Compliance Services

Interns will be exposed to a dynamic and creative work environment where they will contribute to policy implementation, program execution, and community engagement initiatives.
