Boston Consulting Group Internship 2026 – Johannesburg

Description

Boston Consulting Group (BCG) invites high-performing students to apply for the Internship Programme 2026 based in Johannesburg. As a BCG intern, you'll join world-class consultants in solving complex business challenges for leading organisations. This programme offers hands-on experience, structured learning, mentorship, and the opportunity to contribute meaningfully to real client projects.

What You'll Do

As an intern at BCG, you will:

- Collaborate within cross-functional teams to address client challenges and deliver high-impact solutions.
- Analyze data, build hypotheses, and develop actionable recommendations to guide client decision-making.
- Communicate insights clearly to stakeholders through presentations and written reports.
- Lead and manage independent workstreams that contribute to the overall success of the project.
- Contribute innovative thinking, problem-solving capabilities, and strategic insight to every engagement.

Requirements

To be eligible for the BCG Internship Programme 2026, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Currently studying towards a Bachelor's, Honour's or Master's degree.
- Final year of study in 2026.
- Strong academic performance with excellent analytical and quantitative problem-solving skills.
- Minimum university GPA of 68% (cumulative average).
- High school Pure Mathematics: minimum 65%.
- Demonstrated critical thinking ability to evaluate information, make informed decisions, and generate innovative solutions.
- Comfortable working in dynamic environments with varied project demands.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English.
- Ability to work effectively in diverse teams and adapt to changing environments.
