Citi South Africa Graduate Internships 2025 – Apply Now

Description

Citi South Africa is inviting ambitious, high-performing graduates to apply for the Graduate Internship Programme 2025 in Johannesburg. This year-long learnership offers recent university graduates an exceptional opportunity to gain real-world experience across various Citi business areas while preparing for a long-term career in financial services.

If you're passionate about finance, data, markets, or operations—and want to make an impact in the African and global economy—this programme is the ideal launchpad.

About the Programme

The Citi Graduate Learnership Programme runs for 12 months, offering structured training, mentorship, and work exposure in Market Operations. During the programme, you will:

- Gain practical experience through hands-on work
- Be exposed to different business functions and Citi's global culture
- Receive financial sponsorship for a relevant postgraduate qualification
- Become eligible to apply for permanent roles during the programme

What Your Role Will Look Like

- Undergo a detailed interview and onboarding process
- Be placed in the Market Operations division
- Learn Citi's systems, tools, and processes
- Work closely with teams on local and global operations
- Develop core skills in analytics, communication, and problem-solving
- Collaborate on impactful projects that influence Citi's operations in South Africa and beyond

Eligibility Criteria

To qualify for the Citi South Africa Graduate Internship Programme, you must:

- Hold an undergraduate degree with a minimum 65% GPA
- Have a background in any discipline (Preference for Maths, Science, Engineering, or Data-related fields)
- Have 0–1 year of work experience
- Demonstrate strong leadership, teamwork, and communication skills
